Student Learning Outcomes

Students become disciple leaders as they

1. Understand and commit to live the principles of the restored Gospel of Jesus Christ
2. Demonstrate leadership skills and the ability to cooperate with others

Students become lifelong learners as they

1. Locate, evaluate, and appropriately use needed information
2. Master strategies to continually gain and apply knowledge and skills in new situations

Students become creative and critical thinkers as they

1. Apply reflective reasoning, logic and quantitative analysis to new ideas, opinions, and situations
2. Analyze problems and challenges from fresh perspectives that offer innovative solutions

Students become effective communicators as they

1. Present ideas and arguments clearly through oral, written, and visual form
2. Listen, understand, and effectively engage others in a variety of settings

Students become skilled professionals as they

1. Develop deep learning in a discipline and broad skills leading to self-reliance
2. Deep professional and ethical values and practices

Students become engaged citizens as they

1. Fulfill family, religious, and civic responsibilities
2. Develop empathy for their fellow men and understanding of world religion, culture, history, literature, science, and the arts

Know   Do   Become

Program Outcomes

Computer Information Technology

1. Graduates have well-developed problem solving skills

2. Graduates have current technical skills in database, networking, programming, project management, systems administration and web development

3. Graduates have professional written and oral communications skills

4. Graduates work constructively as team members within an organization

Business Analytics

1. Graduates have well-developed problem solving skills

2. Graduates will be able to generate and use information to solve complex problems

3. Graduates have professional written and oral communications skills

4. Graduates work constructively as team members within an organization